Areas of good practice

Standard 1.1

- The pharmacy head office supports team members with resources to help them identify and manage the risks when providing services and protect patient safety.

Standard 1.2

- Pharmacy team members continually monitor the safety and quality of services. They have systems in place to learn from their mistakes and minimise the risk of the same mistakes happening again making services safer.

Standard 2.2

- The pharmacy encourages its team members to help keep their knowledge and skills up to date with ongoing training.

Standard 4.2

- The pharmacy uses technology to prompt the team members to make extra checks and provide counselling to people taking high-risk medicines. And it helps reduce mistakes and improve the safety of the dispensing service.

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 3.2

- The area around the sink in the consultation room required treatment to remove limescale and mould.
