Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy generally completes the records that it needs to by law but the Responsible

Pharmacist record and some of the private prescription records are incomplete or inaccurate, which may make it harder to respond to a query or concern.

Standard 4.2

- The pharmacy team speak to people who use their services, particularly when they are starting a new medicine. But they do not routinely identify people taking high-risk medicines to provide counselling advice. And the team do not record the counselling advice they do provide. This would help with continuity of care and make sure up to date information is available during clinical reviews.
