It provides services such as malaria prophylaxis and travel vaccinations including yellow fever; COVID and flu vaccinations, weight loss treatments, ear wax removal, cryotherapy and medicines delivery.

This was an intelligence-led inspection of the pharmacy following information received by the GPhC. Not all the Standards were inspected on this occasion. The pharmacy was last inspected in November 2017.

Standards not met

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy do not complete regular audits for the prescribing services. This may mean that any issues with service provision are not identified, such as suitability of communication methods, documentation, and clinical decision-making including treatment refusals.

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy does not consistently keep the appropriate records for the prescribing services, including decisions to supply or refuse treatment. This means that it does not have evidence available to show that the service is safe and there is little data to drive improvement or quality management.

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.1

- The pharmacy has some standard operating procedures (SOPs), risk assessments and clinical protocols available for its private prescribing service. However, these lacked some detail, particularly around the guidance followed and the risks around prescribing at a distance. This may make it hard for the pharmacy to deliver its services consistently and ensure that they have considered the risks to providing the private services.
