Pharmacy context and inspection background

This supermarket pharmacy is in West Bridgford, Nottinghamshire. Its main services include dispensing NHS prescriptions and private prescriptions from Asda's Online Doctor service. It sells medicines and it provides people with advice about their general health and wellbeing needs. The pharmacy also provides NHS consultation services including the Pharmacy First Service, Pharmacy Contraception Service, blood pressure checks and the New Medicine Service.

This was a routine inspection of the pharmacy which focused on the core Standards relating to patient safety. Not all the Standards were inspected on this occasion. The pharmacy was last inspected in May 2016.

Overall outcome: Standards met

Required Action: None

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.1

- Pharmacy team members have access to the pharmacy's written procedures. But priority is not given to support new members of the team in reading and completing learning to support them in understanding these procedures. This means there is a risk that not all team members are working in the same way.

Standard 1.2

- Pharmacy team members regularly share learning following the mistakes they identify and correct during the dispensing process. But they do not always take the opportunity to record these mistakes. This means it may be more difficult to identify trends in mistakes and to act to reduce risk.

Standard 4.3

- The pharmacy team checks expiry dates of medicines during the dispensing process. But it has fallen behind in completing scheduled checks of its stock medicines to help ensure they remain safe to supply.
- Pharmacy team members regularly check the operating temperature of the pharmacy's fridges. But they do not always record these checks to support them in demonstrating that medicines requiring cold storage are kept at the right temperature.
