Pharmacy context and inspection background

This pharmacy is located in a row of shops in Pimlico, London. It dispenses people's prescriptions, sells over-the-counter medicines and provides health advice. It also offers consultations and some medicines through the Pharmacy First service. And dispenses some medicines in multicompartiment compliance aids for those who may have difficulty managing their medicines.

This was a full routine inspection of the pharmacy. The pharmacy was last inspected in March 2020 and all standards were met.

Overall outcome: Standards met

Required Action: None

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy's private prescription records did not always have the prescriber details recorded. And, although the documentation for unlicensed medicines were filed on site, staff rarely recorded details about the prescriber. This may mean that this information is harder to find out if there was a query, the responsible pharmacist gave assurances that these details would be recorded in future.

Standard 4.2

- Overall, the pharmacy manages its services safely. But the pharmacy does not always provide appropriate warning information or patient information leaflets (PILs) with supplies of medicines dispensed in multi-compartment compliance packs. Also, the pharmacy does not complete individual risk assessments for people who have valproate-containing products dispensed in their compliance packs. But none of them fall within the at-risk group. The responsible pharmacist gave assurances that risk assessments would be completed for them to help ensure that supplying those medicines in this way remains both safe and appropriate. And the team would look into how to print medicines warnings on the documentation inside the packs and that PILs would be provided with each supply.
