Standards not met

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy's records for higher-risk medicines are incomplete and inaccurate. When discrepancies relating to controlled drug records are identified, they are not investigated appropriately and in a timely manner. This may make discrepancies harder to resolve.

Standard 4.3

- The pharmacy does not ensure all of its medicines are safe to supply by monitoring and recording fridge temperatures. So, there is a risk that some medicines may not be fit for use.
- Some high-risk medicines are stored in such a way that creates a significant risk of unauthorised access when team members are handling these medicines.

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy team can describe some changes they make following dispensing mistakes identified within the pharmacy, to reduce the risk of them happening again. But they do not consistently record dispensing mistakes when they happen, or the actions they take. So team members may miss opportunities to learn when things go wrong.
