Pharmacy context and inspection background

This is a community pharmacy in a residential area of Ashington, Northumberland. Its main services include dispensing of NHS prescriptions, and it provides medicines in multi-compartment compliance packs to help people take them properly. Team members advise on minor ailments and medicines use. Pharmacy team members provide other healthcare services including the NHS Pharmacy First Service. And the pharmacist provides a private face to face medicated weight loss prescribing service.

This was a full intelligence-led inspection of the pharmacy following information received by the GPhC. The pharmacy was last inspected in April 2017 and all standards were met.

Overall outcome: Standards not all met

Standards not met

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy team does not keep complete records of mistakes identified during the dispensing process and dispensing incidents, and it does not regularly review these mistakes. So team members may miss opportunities to identify patterns, learn from their mistakes and improve their services.

Standard 4.3

- The pharmacy is not managing its medicines as it should. Medicines returned by people for destruction are not stored appropriately before they are disposed of. There is a risk that they could be inappropriately accessed. The team do not carry out checks on medicine expiry dates. This increases the risk of people receiving medicines which have expired. And full records are not maintained for medicines stored in the refrigerator, so the team cannot show that it is operating with the required range.

Standard 4.4

- The pharmacy team are not following a process for managing recalled medicines so there is a risk that people could receive a medicine which is not fit for purpose.

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy's team members mostly keep the records they need to. But they do not check running balances of all its higher-risk medicines regularly. This could mean that mistakes might not always be identified and corrected in a timely manner. And they do not keep complete records of unlicensed medicines, so there is not a complete audit trail of supplies the pharmacy makes
