Pharmacy context and inspection background

This pharmacy is attached to a medical centre in a suburban residential area, serving the local population. It mainly prepares NHS prescription medicines. The pharmacy provides other NHS services including the New Medicine Service (NMS), pharmacy first, influenza and COVID vaccinations, hypertension case finding, and contraception services. This was a routine inspection of the pharmacy which focused on the core Standards relating to patient safety. Not all the Standards were inspected on this occasion. The pharmacy was last inspected in June 2016.

Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy team discusses mistakes it identifies when preparing medicines. But team members do not always record these mistakes or the reason for them. This means the pharmacy could be missing additional opportunities to promote learning, identify patterns and mitigate risks in the dispensing process.

Standard 1.6

- The pharmacy keeps an electronic responsible pharmacist (RP) record. However, the RP does not always document when they started and ceased working, so the pharmacy may have difficulties identifying the RP if needed.

Standard 4.2

- The pharmacy has written procedures for dispensing valproate. But these procedures are not fully up to date with the latest guidance. So, the pharmacy may have difficulties easily demonstrating that team members understand all the necessary checks when dispensing valproate.

Standard 4.3

- The pharmacy monitors medicine stock expiry dates and refrigerated medicine storage temperatures. However, it does not always document these checks. So, the pharmacy may have difficulties easily showing that it consistently checks that medicines are fit for use and stored appropriately.
- The pharmacy appropriately stores its controlled drugs, but it delays disposing of them when they are no longer suitable for use.
