Pharmacy context and inspection background

This is a community pharmacy located on a busy main road in the centre of Melton Mowbray. It is open extended hours Monday to Saturday and most of its activity is dispensing NHS prescriptions. It also provides a prescription delivery service, the NHS Pharmacy First service, and it supplies medicines in multi-compartment compliance packs to some people.

This was an intelligence-led inspection of the pharmacy following information received by the GPhC. The pharmacy was last inspected in June 2025 and not all standards were met, resulting in an action plan. There was some overlap between the issues found during this intelligence-led inspection and the previous inspection. This inspection focused on the matters raised with the GPhC and did not look at all the Standards.

Overall outcome: Standards not all met

Standards not met

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy could show it had taken some specific remedial actions in response to when something had gone wrong. But it was unable to demonstrate that its team adequately analysed and learned from mistakes to make improvements to the safety and quality of the wider service they provided. For example, the pharmacy could not show that its team were aware of and were always following its written procedures about dealing with dispensing mistakes. And the pharmacy couldn't show that near misses were used routinely as opportunities to identify improvements in the pharmacy's ways of working.

Standard 4.3

- There was separation of some look-a-like, sound-a-like stock medicines on the dispensary shelves to reduce risk. But there were several examples seen of medicines with similar names being stored in a disorganised way, with several different medicines often placed on top of each other with little or no separation. And it was unclear that all team members putting stock away were fully aware of the potential risks posed by medicines with similar names or packaging. This increases the risk of the wrong medicine being picked from the shelf and being supplied to a patient.
