Pharmacy context and inspection background

This is a community pharmacy located in a small shopping centre in the town of Cove Bay in Aberdeen. Its main services are dispensing NHS prescriptions and selling over-the-counter medicines. It acts as a hub pharmacy and uses an automated dispensing machine to assemble multi-compartment compliance packs for other pharmacies within the company known as spoke pharmacies. The pharmacist provides prescribing services including the NHS Pharmacy First Plus service. Team members provide advice on minor ailments and medicines' use.

This is the first inspection of the pharmacy since it extended its premises in March 2021.
