Standards not met

Standard 1.1

- While the pharmacy team were able to show that they could dispense a prescription accurately the pharmacy is not identifying and managing all the risks associated with its pharmacy services. Some of its standard operating procedures (SOPs) had not been reviewed in a timely way and the pharmacy does not have an SOP in place for deblistering its medicines as part of its assembly of multi-compartment compliance packs.

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy is not able to show that it has processes in place to adequately review and monitor the safety and quality of the services provided. For example, it could not show that dispensing incidents were reviewed adequately and improvement actions taken to prevent similar events happening in the future.

Standard 4.3

- The safety of medicines is compromised by inadequate management arrangements. The pharmacy has not given sufficient consideration of the risks of removing from and storing medicines outside of their original blister packs. And packs containing mixed batches of cut blisters do not always have batch numbers or expiry dates. This means the pharmacy team cannot be sure that the medicines are in date or have not been subject to a medicine recall.

Standard 4.4

- Although the pharmacist could explain the actions taken when a medicine recall was received there were no records to show that action had been taken.
