Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.1

- The pharmacy does not regularly review and update its Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs). And its existing SOPs don't always consider the risks when making changes to its working practices. The pharmacy had changed the way it dispensed multi-compartment compliance packs and it had not defined its new working arrangements.

Standard 1.6

- Overall, the pharmacy manages its high-risk medicines well. But it does not always carry out destructions in a timely manner to ensure that stock levels are kept at a safe level.
