Standards that were met with areas for improvement

Standard 1.1

- The pharmacy has a set of written procedures for the services that it provides but its team members have not signed them to demonstrate they have read and understand them. This means they may not always fully understand the processes that underpin the services they provide.

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy has processes to record and review when errors are made. However, its team members do not review the records to identify any emerging risks or trends. So some learning opportunities may be overlooked and there may be a risk of similar mistakes happening again.

Standard 2.2

- The pharmacy team are suitably qualified for the roles they undertake but they do not have access to a training and development plan, which means they might find it difficult to keep up to date with current pharmacy practice.

Standard 4.3

- The pharmacy provides medicines in multi-compartment compliance packs to help people take their medicines. But it does not routinely provide patient information leaflets each time the medicines are supplied and it does not include descriptions of the medicines have been dispensed into the packs. So people may not always have up to date information about their medicines.

Standard 4.4

- The pharmacy receives medicines safety alerts, but its team members do not keep a record of who actioned them and when which means that there is no audit trail to provide assurance that these are always acted upon promptly and appropriately.
