Areas of good practice

Standard 1.2

- The pharmacy regularly carries out clinical audits of its prescribing, and it can show how it has improved its services as a result.

Standard 2.1

- The pharmacy regularly reviews its staffing requirements to help make sure it meets people's needs. It has a good skill mix of staff and encourages their development to support service delivery in the pharmacy.

Standard 2.2

- The pharmacy encourages its team members to develop their skills and it provides clear opportunities for career progression. It makes good use of its dispensing assistants' skills and supports them with their development.

Standard 4.2

- The pharmacy keeps detailed records of its consultations with people using its services, including those where no medicines were supplied. It shares that information with other healthcare professionals involved in the care of people using its services to help make sure the medicines they receive are safe and appropriate for them.

Standard 4.4

- The pharmacy keeps good records of the actions it has taken in response to drug alerts and recalls that it has received. It also makes sure that all of its prescribers are aware of each alert and shares a summary of the alerts and action taken with all involved in providing their services.
