Enforcement action taken:

Conditions on pharmacy premises - (The Medicines Act – Section 74D)

Effective date:

21 August 2024 (varied on 27 August 2026)

Premises standards failed:

NA

Summary:

An unannounced visit was undertaken to the pharmacy on 14 April 2026, following information received by the GPhC. From the evidence gathered during and following the inspection, there was evidence that the pharmacy was breaching the conditions placed on it on 21 August 2024. The pharmacy was unable to provide adequate assurances that the conditions are being complied with. And so, it is therefore necessary to vary the conditions for the purpose of securing the safe and effective practice of pharmacy at the premises.

Conditions imposed:

1. The pharmacy must not sell or supply any medicines via any distance selling service model, including through a website or by post/courier, except for fulfilling NHS prescriptions.

Outcome:

Ongoing
